PROGENY

Landkönig produced the highest selling jumper ever sold at the Hanoverian Elite auctions as well as a licensed son and a Bundeschampionat qualifier in '03 and '04. He had 10 offspring selected for German Hanoverian Auctions all from his first foal crop. Lantinus, a Landkönig son sold for 215,000 Euro, a record-breaking price, in the Hanoverian Elite auction of October 2002. No jumper has done this before or since! Landkönig had several top inspection foals, even some from TB mares, whom according to AHS judges Quarles and Richardson displayed extremely nice movement some equivalent to a 9 score. In 2005, Landkönig earned a spot on the topliste Hanoveraner Hengste with a jumping breedvalue of 132, highest of any Hanoverian standing in North America. In 2005 his oldest offspring, 8 yr old son Lucullus won his first Grand Prix and 3 of his oldest, 7 and 8 yr olds, placed at 9 Grand Prixes. One sold December 2005 at the prestigious PSI for $437,000.
