

PABLO

PEDIGREE

In 2005 Pablo was the only stallion in North America to earn a spot on the top list of Hanoverian hengste for jumping and type.

PERFORMANCE

Licensing champion Pablo was reserve champion of his 100-day test out of 53 stallions, dressage 138,21 and jumping 129,11 showing his versatility. Pablo had 9's on trot, canter, rideability, ability to work and jumping.

PROGENY

Pablo's offspring had more winnings, placings, as well as more offspring competing at Grand Prix level than any other jumper stallion currently standing in the US. Pablo sired multiple SPS and Elite mares and 16 approved sons, to mention some: Prinz Pablo, Potential, Pablito and Papparazzo. Pablo qualified for the Bundeschampionat twice.

Seven Pablo offspring were at the Bundeschampionat in '98. Pablo was selected for the Programm Hannoverian Springpferdezucht and is in the AHS jumper program. In '04, five Pablo offspring qualified for the national Swedish testing with at least one regional championship and the highest jumping score awarded to a Pablo mare. In '99 his approved son won the stallion testing in Denmark. As of 2005 at least 44 Pablo offspring competed at grand Prix level and several are competing in international FEI classes. For example the top international dressage horse Paradise Moon FRH, ridden by Heike Kemmer and a Grand Prix horse ridden by Lisa Wilcox in Switzerland. Pablo is also the sire of German jumping Champion Pan Am. From his first US foal crop so far at least 5 foals were inspection champions at AHS, Oldenburg NA and Swedish inspection sites. Pablo's offspring winnings now exceed US $500,000.
